

ENGAGED.

The little bird that links your life to mine—Seems slight and fragile, do you think 'twixt hold And hear the changes of the coming time.
When life is dark and all is bleak and cold?
And do you think that, purified by pain, We can take up our lives and love again?
Or when, like the inconstant skies of spring, Our lives are clouded as they are?
And we know that summer could not bring Will you not feed it all too hard to bear?
And when these storms and weary hours have tried us,
Can we live on and let no power divide us?
Then if this little chain, so frail and weak Remembers when our lives are frail and bright, Could find a voice and each small link could speak,
Would it not say 'twas frightened of the night?
If it must break, and we must humbly bow, In pity for my weakness, break it now.
But if you think that it can bear the weight Of fiery trials as they come and go, We can take heart and boldly meet the fate That gives impartially of joy and woe, And be it summer fair or wintry weather,
We can be brave, and meet all life, together.

REPORTERS IN GERMANY.

Demand of the International Congress of Shorthand Writers.
Reporters are generally credited with a large amount of shrewdness and common sense but it cannot be said that their qualities are in any way apparent in the results said to have been arrived at by what is termed the "practical" section of the international congress of shorthand reporters, held in Berlin. The question of remuneration that should be paid for shorthand reporting was, in itself, an eminently practical one, but it is clear that either there is an extraordinary scarcity of shorthand reporters in Berlin or that the ideas of the reporters of that city are altogether inordinate. It would have been thought, indeed, that the question as to local payments was one that should be determined by local men and that it lay altogether beyond the scope of an international congress, although such a body might decide upon the scale its members should demand in all countries and places. The representatives of the British shorthand reporters must have looked with envy and astonishment on the terms to be demanded in Berlin, which were from thirty to fifty marks, or shillings, an hour, according to the nature of the work, and one hundred and fifty marks for a daily engagement in the law courts or elsewhere. An advertisement in an English paper for shorthand writers at from three to five shillings an hour—one tenth of the Berlin rate—or at seven pence ten shillings a week, instead of a day, would be answered by a score of competent shorthand reporters, and when the news spreads of Berlin prices we may expect a general emigration of all the shorthand writers of this country who may possess a sufficient acquaintance with the German language to perform the duties.—London

To Our Subscribers.

The special announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr.
B. J. Kendall Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J.
Kendall Co. (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the Horse it is indispensable, and it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it a standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise."

THE ART OF SELF-DEFENCE.

Commendation of It by the Speaker of the British Commons.
The noble art of self-defence will not die out if the speaker of the house of commons, Rt. Hon. Arthur Wellesley represents any public sentiment in merry England. This distinguished gentleman, says the Chicago Times, lately delivered an address at the opening of a gymnasium in Lexington.
He had no wish for a return of the bloody pastime of the prize ring, but he hoped the day was far distant when the English people would forget the noble art itself. He had seen Heenan and Sayers many years ago, and remembered the enthusiasm with which those two cracks were greeted when they stretched out their arms toward each other in the morning breeze. The land was filled with admiration for their physical perfection. We could have the good effects of pugilism without the brutality of fights. So long as glove fights did not degenerate into a mere bull-like struggle of infuriated men—so long as they were kept within the limits of skill without taboos an occasional well-meant thump or so—he was for the practice. He recalled also the enthusiasm with which an English curate of his acquaintance had witnessed against his will the famous fight between Cribb and Molyneux. The curate's reactor was at the same time a magistrate. The constant of the district where the fight was to take place told the reactor that as a magistrate he must go and arrest them. He took his curate and proceeded with the stern intention of performing his duty, but when he neared the ring a band of other pugilists met him with the threat that if he moved a step to stop the fight he would run the day. Turning to his curate, the reactor said: "I think it is impossible for me to do anything more than I have already done. Let us stop and see the rest of the fight." And, the curate agreeing, they stopped and saw.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough medicine we have ever sold, a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 50c, and $1.00. If your lungs are sore, chest or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by St. Bernard drug store,

ALL SORTS AND CONDITIONS.

In some part or other of the world, horses, cattle and sheep are found wild, but nowhere can be found wild camels.
The largest shipment of apples ever made from the United States left Portland recently for England. The cargo consisted of 13,000 barrels.
The largest lions are about eight feet in length and nearly five feet in height and are found in Africa. The lions found in Asia are smaller and have not the long mane of the African lion.
A PAPER made of paper, and made unsized paper and coat it with an aqueous solution of dextrine. When dry apply a layer of siccativ oil paint.

The new regulations of the Suez canal have necessitated the building of vessels for carrying oil in bulk. A syndicate has been formed for this purpose and the type of steamer differs materially from anything thus far afloat.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.
This explains why more than a million bottles were sold last year. It relieves

FANCIES FOR THE FAIR SEX.

ENAMEL flower-pins are among the most beautiful of the current trifles in Jewelry.
The Ladies' Cycling club of New York has adopted as its uniform a tailor-made dress of navy-blue serge, scarlet skirt and matching cap.
MANY Polish women living in New York are adopting the custom of their countrywomen by wearing black throughout the year 1922, which marks a century of Poland's independence.
LITTLE brocade and plush bags lined with flannel are shown at bazars to protect umbrellas and parasol handles.
As these grow in delicacy and costliness, it is perhaps well to have cases for them.
New hairpins, which are thrust in the back of the coiffure to hold in place the small bonnets and crownless hats, are of gold, beautifully cut out in open-work patterns. They have almost superseded the knots and twists so long in vogue. "It is so easy," said the exclu-sives, "to imitate them in cheap quality."

The following item, clipped from the Fort Madison, Iowa, Democrat, contains information well worth remembering:
"Mr. John Roth, of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago, spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 50 cent bottle of Chanberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises, and should have a place in every household. For sale by the St. Bernard drug store, Earlington, George King, St. Charles, PERSONAL REMARKS.

PROBABLY the oldest person in Arkansas is Annie Aldrich, a nee of Harrington, who is supposed to be 115 years old.

14 years old, weighs 208 pounds, is six feet two inches high and wears a No. 10

Mrs. HATTIE DAY, of East Backsport, Mo., has sold $30 worth of braids made from her own hair, and yet she has abundant black tresses, three feet in length.
Mrs. FRANCIS CARTER, an aged colored woman of Altoona, Ill., will receive $150,000 from the estate of the late Dr. William Wetson, of Pittsburgh. She was a nurse in his father's family in Louisiana before he died.
ERNEST RUSSELL, of Muncie, Ind., who has long been mourned as dead, returned home the other day. He was a soldier in the civil war, afterward on the Indian frontier and claims to be a survivor of the Custer massacre.
THERE is a mad bridegroom in Chico, Cal. His name is Avery, and his bride was a Miss Small. With a shotgun in hand, he is hunting for the local reporter who headed a half-column description of the ceremony with this line:
"A Very Small Wedding."

Just as sure as hot weather comes there will be more or less bowel complaint in this vicinity. Every person, and especially families, ought to have some reliable medicine at hand for instant use in case it is needed. A 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is just what you ought to have and all that you would need, even for the most severe and dangerous cases. It is the best, most reliable and most successful treatment known and is pleasant to take. For

The queen of Denmark has been she has only a section of them on her

A pain in the side or back and spots on the face indicate kidney and liver disorder.
Mr. Geo. P. Eckes, Lorens, W. Va., says:
"I had kidney trouble for over two years.
Have tried different kinds of kidney medicine, but got no relief. I was not able to ride horseback, and scarcely able to attend to my business. I commenced using Lightning Kidney and Liver Remedy, and before I had used one bottle I began to improve. I have taken four or five bottles and am almost cured." For sale by
